

ABOUT

- The Campus Well-being Educator Program is dedicated to promoting healthy lifestyle choices to NDSU students through health and well-being programming and campus outreach with support of the President's Council for Campus Well-being.
- The peer education program is within Health Promotion in NDSU Student Health Service.
- Campus Well-being Educators focus on important student health and well-being topics such as mental health, physical health, substance use education, safety, personal development and more!
- Campus Well-being Educators are students who serve as leaders and role models to fellow students and encourage others to make responsible and healthy lifestyle choices.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Exhibit a passion for health and well-being with a willingness to serve as a role model for other students.
- Assist in the design and implementation of program activities, awareness campaigns, presentations, and other campus outreach based on relevant health and well-being topics for NDSU students.
- Become knowledgeable about well-being, health behaviors, and health resources to appropriately refer and educate students.
- Work independently and with a team.
