Dear First Name,

Your Federal Aid Year 2018-2019 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) application has been selected for a review process called Verification, which is a federal requirement. In this process, NDSU will compare the information from your FAFSA with the required documents listed below. If there are discrepancies, corrections will be made and your financial aid award may be adjusted. Please be advised the verification process may take a few weeks; your financial aid cannot be disbursed until this process is complete.

The required verification forms can be found at https://www.ndsu.edu/onestop/financialaid/verification/. Please note this link contains all verification forms, only complete the required forms listed below.

Please submit the following information to North Dakota State University as soon as possible.

Financial Obligation Agreement

Each semester that a NDSU student registers for classes they are required to electronically sign and agree to the terms of the North Dakota University System Financial Obligation Agreement (FOA). By doing so, you acknowledge that you understand that NDSU is advancing value to you in the form of educational services; that your right to attend classes is expressly conditioned upon your agreement to pay the University pursuant to the Agreement; and that you have read, understand, and agree to pay the University pursuant to the Agreement.

When you register for classes, spaces in classes are reserved for you. Decisions about how many class sections to offer and other commitments of instructional resources are made based on the enrollment data provided after the registration process is complete. Other students may be closed out of a preferred section if the last available space is reserved for you. In exchange for the University's commitment of resources on your behalf, you assume a responsibility to:

NDSU
Consent to Release Financial & Academic Student Records
