

FEBRUARY 2020

ART FOLKS

<https://www.ndsu.edu/visualarts/>

FACULTY NEWS

Kim Bromley's painting series of Moby-Dick exhibited as part of the 2020 Moby-Dick Marathon at the New Bedford Whaling Museum in New Bedford, MA. His work was displayed from Jan. 3 - 12, 2020.

Kim Bromley's painting, THREE LETTERS FOR THREE CROWS and Andrew Stark's two pieces ONE WITH NATURE & WE ARE ONE were selected by the jury to participate in the Third Annual North Dakota Human Rights Art Festival. The works will be exhibited as part of a traveling exhibition showing at The Plains Art Museum January 7- 31, Bismarck Downtown Artist Cooperative in Bismarck, ND February 3- 28 and The Taube Museum of Art in Minot, ND from June 10- July 15. Other venues and dates are yet to be announced.

Anthony Faris is showing work in Brooklyn at AMOS ENO Gallery. WWW.AMOSENO.ORG/UPCOMING

GRAPHIC DESIGN

Jacob Schwitalla was hired as a Graphic Design intern at Blue Cross-Blue Shield.

Jessica Bastyr was hired as a Graphic Design intern at Flint Group.

Alumni Kendra Neu was hired as Internal Communications Specialist at AgCountry Farm Credit.
<https://kendraneu.myportfolio.com/portraits>

Alumni Seth Nordstrom was hired as a Graphic Designer at LAKESHIRTS in Detroit Lakes. Lakeshirts.com
<https://www.nordstromdesignco.com/shop>

NDSU

VISUAL ARTS

Are you involved in the Art community? Let us know and we will share your story!
Contact Andrew Stark at andrew.stark@ndsu.edu

If you like ARTFOLKS and want to follow even more of what's happening at NDSU Department of Visual Arts, please LIKE our Facebook page, NDSU Visual Art News!

NDSU Visual Arts News is your stop to read about all things art related, from events and visiting artists, to emerging talent happening now in the Fargo-Moorhead area!