The purpose of Welcome Week is to help students develop a sense of belonging at NDSU while helping them integrate into the academic and social life of the University. The week is a schedule that is designed to help students make connections and learn about opportunities, services, and expectations of being a college student.

Throughout Welcome Week, beginning on Move-In Saturday, the Welcome Week Team serves as resources and mentors for students who are making the transition to NDSU. Each position has different roles and responsibilities for supporting new students during Welcome Week.

There are three separate positions you can apply for: Welcome Week Group Leads, Welcome Week Guides, or Move-in Crew.

Please review the responsibilities, time commitments, and required dates/events for each position. Individuals can apply for one position or apply for multiple to increase the odds of receiving a position. (Please note that the “Guide” position already serves as a part of move-in crew. So you should not apply for both). The application can be found at: www.ndsu.edu/welcomeweek
