

Verification of Specialization: Gender and Sexuality

To receive a specialization in Gender and Sexuality, a student who is declared as a Women and Gender studies major or minor can pursue the track below to tailor their academic work towards an emphasis on gender and family and potentially double major without delaying their graduation.

Students who have not declared a major or minor can also pursue the track below provided they complete a minimum of 12 credit hours in the categories listed. The emphasis can be included on their resumes to demonstrate acquired content and skills in demand by prospective employers.

The Gender and Sexuality is ideal for students interested in pursuing the following careers:

- Clinical Psychologist
- Community Health
- Health Psychologist
- K-12 Educator
- Non-Profit Organization Director
- Organization Outreach Worker
- Social Psychologist
- Social Worker

Mandatory Courses

Department & No.	Title	Credits	Semester Completed
WGS 110	Introduction to Women's Studies*	3
WGS 340	Perspectives in LGBTQ Studies	3

* Denotes the class also counts as a requirement for General Education elective in categories A&D.

Elective Courses

Department & No.	Title	Credits	Semester Completed
PSYCH 210	Human Sexuality	3
WGS 112	Introduction to Masculinities*	3
HDFS 448	Issues in Sexuality	3

Upon completion of 12 credit hours, please sign and present this to the WGS Director for approval:

Student Name: _____ Student ID: _____

Student Signature: _____

WGS Director's Signature _____ Date _____

Students who are not Women and Gender Studies majors or minors must also present this to their academic advisor for approval.

Advisor's Printed Name _____

Advisor's Signature _____ Date _____

Verification of Specialization: Gender and Public Health

To receive a specialization in Gender and Public Health, a student who is declared as a Women and Gender studies major or minor can pursue the track below to tailor their academic work towards an emphasis on gender and family and potentially double major without delaying their graduation.

Students who have not declared a major or minor can also pursue the track below provided they complete a minimum of 12 credit hours in the categories listed. The emphasis can be included on their resumes to demonstrate acquired content and skills in demand by prospective employers.

The Gender and Public Health Track is ideal for students interested in pursuing the following careers:

- American Indian Public Health Specialist
- Community Health Specialist
- Epidemiologist
- Food Safety
- Infection Prevention Specialist
- Non-Profit Organization Director
- Organizational Outreach Worker

Mandatory Courses

Department & No.	Title	Credits	Semester Completed
WGS 110	Introduction to Women's Studies*	3
WGS 350	Perspectives in Women's Studies (section on healthcare)	3

* Denotes the class also counts as a requirement for General Education elective in categories A&D.

Elective Courses

Department & No.	Title	Credits	Semester Completed
Public Health 101	Introduction to Public Health	3
SOC 235	Cultural Diversity	3
WGS 112	Introduction to Masculinities*	3
HDFS 448	Issues in Sexuality	3

Upon completion of 12 credit hours, please sign and present this to the WGS Director for approval:

Student Name: _____ Student ID: _____

Student Signature: _____

WGS Director's Signature _____ Date _____

Students who are not Women and Gender Studies majors or minors must also present this to their academic advisor for approval.

Advisor's Printed Name _____

Advisor's Signature _____ Date _____

Verification of Specialization: Gender and Psychology

To receive a specialization in Gender and Psychology, a student who is declared as a Women and Gender studies major or minor can pursue the track below to tailor their academic work towards an emphasis on gender and family and potentially double major without delaying their graduation.

Students who have not declared a major or minor can also pursue the track below provided they complete a minimum of 12 credit hours in the categories listed. The emphasis can be included on their resumes to demonstrate acquired content and skills in demand by prospective employers.

The Gender and Psychology Track is ideal for students interested in pursuing the following careers:

- Clinical Psychologist
- Health Psychologist
- K-12 Educator
- Social Psychologist

Mandatory Courses

Department & No.	Title	Credits	Semester Completed
WGS 110	Introduction to Women's Studies*	3
WGS 340	Perspectives in LGBTQ Studies	3

* Denotes the class also counts as a requirement for General Education elective in categories A&D.

Elective Courses

Department & No.	Title	Credits	Semester Completed
PSYCH 210	Human Sexuality	3
PSYCH 250	Developmental Psychology	3
HDFS 448	Issues in Sexuality	3
WGS 112	Introduction to Masculinities*	3

Upon completion of 12 credit hours, please sign and present this to the WGS Director for approval:

Student Name: _____ Student ID: _____

Student Signature: _____

WGS Director's Signature _____ Date _____

Students who are not Women and Gender Studies majors or minors must also present this to their academic advisor for approval.

Advisor's Printed Name _____

Advisor's Signature _____ Date _____

Verification of Specialization: Gender and Nursing

To receive a specialization in Gender and Nursing, a student who is declared as a Women and Gender studies major or minor can pursue the track below to tailor their academic work towards an emphasis on gender and family and potentially double major without delaying their graduation.

Students who have not declared a major or minor can also pursue the track below provided they complete a minimum of 12 credit hours in the categories listed. The emphasis can be included on their resumes to demonstrate acquired content and skills in demand by prospective employers.

The Gender and Nursing Track is ideal for students interested in pursuing the following careers:

- Family Nurse Practitioner
- Geriatric Nursing
- Mental Health Nurse
- Nurse Midwife
- Obstetrics and Gynecology Nurse
- Pediatric Nurse
- School Nurse

Mandatory Courses

Department & No.	Title	Credits	Semester Completed
WGS 110	Introduction to Women's Studies*	3
WGS 350	Perspectives in Women's Studies (section on healthcare)	3

* Denotes the class also counts as a requirement for General Education elective in categories A&D.

Elective Courses

Department & No.	Title	Credits	Semester Completed
PSYCH 210	Human Sexuality	3
SOC 235	Cultural Diversity	3
SOC 410	Social Inequality	3
WGS 340	Perspectives in LGBTQ Studies	3

Upon completion of 12 credit hours, please sign and present this to the WGS Director for approval:

Student Name: _____ Student ID: _____

Student Signature: _____

WGS Director's Signature _____ Date _____

Students who are not Women and Gender Studies majors or minors must also present this to their academic advisor for approval.

Advisor's Printed Name _____

Advisor's Signature _____ Date _____

Verification of Specialization: Gender and Family

To receive a specialization in Gender and Family, a student who is declared as a Women and Gender studies major or minor can pursue the track below to tailor their academic work towards an emphasis on gender and family and potentially double major without delaying their graduation.

Students who have not declared a major or minor can also pursue the track below provided they complete a minimum of 12 credit hours in the categories listed. The emphasis can be included on their resumes to demonstrate acquired content and skills in demand by prospective employers.

The Gender and Family Track is ideal for students interested in pursuing the following careers:

- Counselor
- Child Protect Services
- K-12 Educator
- Non-Profit Organization Directory
- Organizational Outreach Worker
- Social Worker
- Volunteer Coordinator

Mandatory Courses

Department & No.	Title	Credits	Semester Completed
WGS 112	Introduction to Masculinities*	3

* Denotes the class also counts as a requirement for General Education elective in categories A&D.

Elective Courses

Department & No.	Title	Credits	Semester Completed
HDFS 230	Life Span Development	3
HDFS 242	Couples, Marriages, and Families	3
HDFS 275	Diversity and Multiculturalism in Family Life	3
HDFS 341	Parent-Child Relations	3
HDFS 357	Personal and Family Finance	3
HDFS 448	Issues in Sexuality	3
HDFS 462	Methods of Family Life Education	3

Upon completion of 12 credit hours, please sign and present this to the WGS Director for approval:

Student Name: _____ Student ID: _____

Student Signature: _____

WGS Director's Signature _____ Date _____

Students who are not Women and Gender Studies majors or minors must also present this to their academic advisor for approval.

Advisor's Printed Name _____

Advisor's Signature _____ Date _____