Grade Feedback – Blackboard Assignments and Tests/Quizzes

How can I see my instructor’s comments and feedback?

Blackboard Submitted Assignments

If the assignment has been graded and is still visible to students:

1. Click the same link you used to submit the assignment
2. Check the “Feedback to Learner” section to see the instructor’s comments and/or any attached files

You may see other comments and annotations added in certain documents

Note: Click each file link on the right to see the comments and markup for each document

3. Click the Rubric button (if the instructor provided a Rubric) to see additional comments and scoring

If the assignment has been graded, but it’s no longer visible to students:

1. Click Tools | My Grades
2. Click the Feedback “bubble” on the right to see comments in a pop-up box
3. Click the assignment title on the left to see the comments in the Feedback to Learner section, annotations on documents, and comments and scoring in the Rubric, if available
Blackboard Submitted Tests and Quizzes

If the test/quiz has been graded and is still visible to students:

1. Click the same link you used to begin the test/quiz originally
2. Click the Begin button again
3. Click the View All Attempts button
4. Click on your score in the Calculated Grade column on the right

If the test/quiz has been graded and is no longer visible to students:

1. Click Tools | My Grades
2. Click the test/quiz title on the left side of the screen
3. Click on your score in the Calculated grade column on the right
