Tough Topics 2017:
Let’s Figure It Out Together

NDSU Teach-in // March 23 // 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. // MU Great Plains Ballroom

An interactive forum for NDSU students, faculty, and staff addressing social and political issues that impact everyone’s lives. Sessions will be offered several times.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

3:30 P.M.
Let’s Figure It Out Together: Asking Meaningful Questions // Chimeric embryos: A potential solution to organ transplant lists // FM Diversion - Billions for What?

4 P.M.
Environmental Justice: Our human right to clean water and fresh air // How does limiting scientific inquiry and dissemination on climate change affect local and global food security?

4:30 P.M.

5 P.M.
Religious Liberty // American Opinions about Climate Change: Exploring the Gap between the Scientific Consensus & Public Opinion

5:30 P.M.
Green, Gold, and Rainbow: Experiences of LGBT students at NDSU // What is it: Debate, Argument, Conflict? // The Effects of Inequality and Democracy

6 P.M.
My Rights End Where Yours Begin: The Margins of Public Health and Personal Liberties // Should we genetically engineer food animals?

View full list of sessions at: www.ndsu.edu/otl/programs/teach-in.html