Reports

Steering Subcommittee: No report.

Reviewing Subcommittee: Mark Schmidt explained the draft developed as a set of guidelines for reviews to use when reviewing departmental assessment reports. He suggested that departments might identify three aspects that they want the University Assessment Committee to critique to optimize the value of the review for the contributing department.

A motion (Brennen/Goplen) was presented to return the draft to the subcommittee. Suggestions made during discussion included: re-writing the document, changing the title, sending it to the department chairs for comment and input, using open-ended questions, and including an introduction along with the “review/response” worksheet. The motion received unanimous approval.
Events Subcommittee
No report.

General Education Report
Bill Slanger distributed handouts: NDSU General Education Courses. He explained that slide four (previous handouts from the October 30th meeting) had been modified.

Bill also discussed new software for tracking student learning was on the market (eLumen Achievement) and indicated that it is being used at the North Dakota State College of Science.

New Business

a) Amy Richter, Christy Oliver, and Bob Harrold discussed the possibility of the University Assessment Committee submitting a faculty development grant and distributed an early outline.
