LITTLE SALLY: Haven't you enough, Mrs. Strong?

Dail-y we break them, 'cause we have to fol-low or-ders. And we keep fill-ing mo-ney bags with bro-ken lives and dreams. But what's it for? I can't ignore their black, immoral profit making schemes.

and our reservoirs have dried up.
I take my baths now in a coffee cup.
I boil what's left of it for tea.
And it's a privilege to pee!

The politicians in their wisdom saw that there should be a law. The politiciams taxed the toilets, and made illegal public urination, and defec-cation. So come and give your coin to CLADWELL:

Don't be the bun-ny! Don't be the stew! Don't be the din-ner, you've got bet-ter things to do.

It's no joke, that's why it's funny! So take your cue: Don't be the bun-ny.

Don't be the bun-ny!

CONTINUE ON: CLADWELL! do it to them ever where!

4. DON'T BE THE BUNNY

A little bunny at a toll booth. He needs a measly fifty cents

Out little bunny didn't plan ahead. Poor bunny simply doesn't have the bread.

He begs for mercy, but gets jail instead. Hasselfischer's in the air as the bunny gets the chair!
HOPE: Sure. Would you be feeling as bad as you do if you didn't have a heart?

HOPE: Because then you'd be dead.

HOPE: Light waltz
