Exam Notes:

The midterm exam is scheduled from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm on Tuesday, March 3rd as indicated in the calendar above. The location will be announced and posted on blackboard at a later date. If this time period does not work for you, you must arrange with your instructor to take it before this day and time.

The final exam is scheduled from 3:15 pm to 5:15 pm on Monday, May 11th as indicated in the calendar above. The location will be announced and posted on blackboard at a later date. This time and day is official and should not conflict with your other exams.

Remember that you must bring your appropriate notebook pages when you come to take your exams (see below):

All notebook pages from sections 1.1-4.3 as indicated on the calendar will be collected immediately before you start your midterm exam.

All notebook pages from the sections 4.4-8.4 as indicated on the calendar will be collected immediately before you start your final exam.

Do not hesitate to ask your instructor any questions pertaining to this course via email (using Blackboard or MyMathLab) or during office hours.

Do not forget to register for MML by 11:59pm on Sunday, January 19.
Failure to do so will automatically get you dropped from the course!
