

Fargo, North Dakota Photographers

(Draft December 6, 1999)

Agnew, Frank H.

Business address: Unknown

Business years: 1884

Frank H. Agnew's imprint was found on a photograph in the Institute for Regional Studies collection (51.60.1). He is also listed in the city directory in 1884 as living at 618 1st Avenue in Fargo.

Amundson, Alf

Business address: Unknown

Business years: Circa 1905-1915

A small number of photographic postcards with Fargo scenes, privately held, list Alf Amundson as the photographer. No more information regarding Amundson could be found, assuming he lived and worked in Fargo. Likely photography was his avocation not his vocation.

Anderson, Charles W.

Business address: 230 Broadway

Business years: 1918-1921

Charles W. Anderson was a photographer first in Grand Forks and Larimore, North Dakota in the 1912 business gazetteer for 1912. He then appears in the 1918 and 1921 business gazetteers for Fargo. In the Fargo city directories for the same time, Nicholas E. Pitsch is listed as a photographer at 230 Broadway going back to 1910. Possibly Mr. Anderson worked for or with Mr. Pitsch for a short time.

Anderson, David, 1883-1962?

Business address: 1340 12th Avenue North (1926?-1932); North Dakota Agricultural College (1934-1945)

Business years: 1924-1945

David Anderson was born March 2, 1883 in Sillerud, Sweden and studied photography there and in Germany. In March 1903 he immigrated to the United States, apparently coming to the Red River Valley. He worked as a photographer in Hawley, Minnesota before moving to North Dakota. Before 1909 he practiced photography in Cooperstown. He was in Aneta from December 1909 until June of 1910, when he sold his studio to Nils P. Hamre of Fargo. He moved to Hillsboro, and then to Mayville in 1912. Prior to 1912 he married Helen (last name unknown) from Cando, North Dakota. Helen was born circa 1890 in North Dakota and they had daughter Ruth, born circa 1914. Mr. Anderson had his studio in Mayville until the early 1920s. By 1924 he was living in Fargo and had opened a studio in his home at 1340 12th Avenue North, across the street from the North Dakota Agricultural College. By 1934 he began to operate his studio at the North Dakota Agricultural College in Morrill Hall. The college granted him office space in exchange for his photographic work. After 1930, he is listed in the city directory along with his wife Inga. Mr. Anderson was a member of the Professional Photographers of America, serving on its council. He also had won a number of medals for excellence in photography. Sometime after 1945 David Anderson moved from Fargo and left his negative and prints collection with the Fargo Chamber of Commerce. In 1951 the collection was donated to the Institute for Regional Studies. Nothing more is known about the family after leaving Fargo. This David Anderson may be the same David Anderson who died in December 1962 in Maryland, having the same date of birth.

Baldwin, Ernest E. and Raphael E.

Business address: N.P. Block (1924-1927); 2 1/2 Broadway (1928)

Business years: Circa 1924-1928

Ernest Baldwin is found as a Fargo photographer only in the city directories from 1924 to 1928. In the 1928 directory his wife Violet is also listed. Raphael Baldwin is listed only in the 1924 directory.

Barnes, Wallace D.

Business address: 224 N.P. Avenue

Business years: 1899 (as Olson & Barnes)

Wallace D. Barnes appears only in the 1899-1900 Fargo city directory in partnership with A.C. Olson. At that time he was boarding at the Elliott Hotel, but by 1900 he was no longer living in North Dakota. Nothing more has been found regarding Mr. Barnes.

Becko, Harold See Harold's Studio

Bell, Clark

Business address: 509 N.P. Avenue

Business years: 1912 (Reed Bell Company)

Clark Bell is listed in the 1912 business gazetteer as the secretary of the Reed Bell Company (See Charles E. Reed).

Bentley, Arthur A., 1870-

Business address: Smith Bock

Business years: 1895-1900 (as A.A. Bentley & Company)

Arthur A. Bentley was born in March 1870 in Minnesota. He came to Fargo and established his photography studio circa 1895. Circa 1896 he married Minnie (last name unknown), who was born in February 1873 in Minnesota. They had two children: Sarah, born March 1897, and Lizzie, born June 1899. His studio employed a large staff, and around 1898 he had studios for a short time in a number of North Dakota towns including Buffalo, Edgeley, LaMoure, and Lisbon. People working for Bentley included H.D. Corliss, Mrs. J. P. Lockwood, J.O. Redd, and H.M. Smith. In 1902 Mr. Bentley is listed as having a studio at Sheldon, N.D. Nothing more is known about Mr. Bentley.

Bestic, Arthur E., 1862-1924

Business address: 204 Broadway

Business years: 1885-1886 (as Bestic & Logan)

Arthur E. Bestic was born in Dublin, Ireland on August 24, 1862. He came to the United States in 1881 and moved directly to Fargo and began farming. He farmed for only eighteen months when he began to work for the Evening Post newspaper in Fargo. After only five months the newspaper went out of business, and Mr. Bestic took a position at the Argus where he worked for twenty years. Only in the 1885 city directory and an 1886 gazetteer is he listed as a photographer, in partnership with S.H. Logan in Bestic & Logan. In 1886 he married Minnie Oldham in Springfield, Ohio and they had a son named Arthur K. Bestic. Minnie died in 1889, and in 1902 Bestic married Anna Dolesky of Wahpeton, North Dakota. Together they had three sons. After retiring from the Argus he worked for Walker Brothers of Fargo as a salesman. Mr. Bestic died November 12, 1924 in Fargo.

Chial, Alfred, 1879-1953

Business address: 55 1/2 Broadway (1932-1936); 4 1/2 South Broadway (1936 as Chial Genelli Studio);
516 1st Avenue North (1938-1940)
Business years: 1932-1940

Alf (Alfred) Chial was born on January 20, 1879 in Vermland, Sweden. Sometime after arriving in the United States in 1896, he married Olga Bergman of Lake Park, Minnesota. Mr. Chial first worked as a photographer in Lake Park and is listed in the 1912 Polk Gazetteer. Between 1920 and 1930, Mr. Chial traveled around the world four times and took pictures in many countries. In 1923 he came to Fargo and became a travel agent. In 1930 he became a coal distributor, and by 1932 he had added a photography business. He continued his photography business until sometime after 1940. He was associated with Walter Schramm for a short time in 1936, known as the Chial Genelli Studio, located at 4 1/2 South Broadway. After his photography career he held various jobs. He died in Plentywood, Montana on August 11, 1953, and his wife Olga died on April 12, 1954.

Clow, Frank W., ca. 1857-

Business address: Jefferson corner of 12th Street
Business years: 1885

Frank W. or William F. Clow was born in Canada in May 1855. He immigrated to the United States in 1872 and moved to Fargo around 1881. He is listed as a salesman in the 1881 city directory, but he does not appear again until 1885 when his profession is given as a photographer in both the city directory and the census. He was single when living in Fargo but was married shortly thereafter to Sarah W. (last name unknown). Sarah was born in December 1861 in Canada. In about 1886, Mr. Clow moved to Lisbon, North Dakota where he operated a studio until 1900. He also operated a studio in Edgeley, N.D. in 1900. Likely the Vera V. Clow who died in Lisbon, N.D. on February 17, 1888 at the age of six months was their daughter. In the 1900 census his name is given as Franklin W. Apparently they left the state shortly thereafter.

Corliss, Harland D., 1871-

Business address: Smith Block
Business years: 1896-1899 (with A.A. Bentley & Company)

Harland D. Corliss was born in November 1871 in Pennsylvania, his parents having come from Vermont. He came to Fargo circa 1896 and was employed at A.A. Bentley & Company, both at its Fargo and Lisbon, North Dakota photograph studios. Circa 1898 he married Clara R. (last name unknown), and by 1900 Mr. Corliss had moved to Casselton, N.D. and opened his own studio. He remained in Casselton after 1904 when he left the photography business and apparently returned to Fargo. In 1907 he was in business with T.E. Wall as Corliss & Wall, confectioners and ice cream manufacturers. The business apparently ended soon and Mr. Corliss is listed as being in real estate until 1911. Nothing more is known about Mr. Corliss.

Criley, Ira H., 1872-

Business address: Unknown
Business years: 1900

Ira H. Criley is found only in the 1900 Fargo census where he gives his profession as a photographer. He was born in April, 1872 in Pennsylvania. At the time of the census he was residing at 307 1st Avenue North with two other men listed as photographers, G.W. Stigleman and Al Smith.

Darcy, William J.

Business address: 518 Front Street (Main Ave.)

Business years: 1924

William J. Darcy began his photographic career in this area in Moorhead, Minnesota in about 1919 when he appears in the city directory. His studio was located at 114 1st Avenue. Apparently after 1920 he moved his studio to 518 Front Street in Fargo where he is found listed in the 1924 Fargo city directory. He apparently left the state shortly thereafter.

Davis, Harlan W.

Business address: Unknown

Business years: 1916

Harlan W. Davis is listed as a Fargo photographer in a 1916 gazetteer. He is not found in any city directory and therefore was in Fargo for a very short time.

Dennis, William C.

Business address: Unknown

Business years: 1922

William C. Dennis's imprint was found on a photo in the Institute for Regional Studies collection (2063.29.29). In the 1922 city directory, a William C. Dennis was living in Moorhead, Minnesota at 1110 7th Avenue North. In the 1919 city directory he is listed as working as a teacher at Moorhead High School. After 1922 he is no longer listed.

Dewey Studio

Business address: Edwards Block (1908-1919); 317 Broadway (1919-1924); 216 1/2 Broadway (1924-1936); 22 Huntington Block (1936-1940); 104 12 Broadway (1940-1945)

Business years: 1908-1945

Archie L. Dewey was born on November 17, 1887 in Jamestown, North Dakota. After his graduation from high school, Mr. Dewey was employed with Northwestern Bell Telephone Company. Mr. Dewey married Irene Schroeder in Sabin, Minnesota on October 18, 1913. They had four children, Ronald, Elizabeth, Dorothy, and Marian. He learned the photography business with his father Arthur in Jamestown, opening the Dewey Studio in Fargo in 1908. His father joined him in Fargo shortly thereafter and they continued in partnership until his father's death in 1925. During World War I Dewey joined with Clifton Voss and began working with other Fargo photographers Voss and Scherling. Archie Dewey died on August 14, 1967. Dewey had served as president of the Photographers' Association of America. During his years as a photographer, Dewey won numerous awards including one from the PAA in 1962 for his services to state photographers. This was the first such award made in North Dakota..

Arthur W. Dewey was born on July 25, 1860 in Arcadia, Wisconsin. In April 1879, his family moved to Jamestown, North Dakota, and he lived one mile south of the city. During this time he hauled freight to the Fort Totten Indian Reservation by team. In 1883, Mr. Dewey opened a photography studio in Jamestown. He married Mary A. McGregor on November 18, 1885, and they and their children Archie and Irene lived at 1119 Ninth Street North in Fargo. On July 17, 1908 Mr. Dewey moved to Fargo and with his son opened Dewey Studio in the Edwards Block. Arthur Dewey died of pneumonia at his home on July 17, 1925. Mrs. Dewey died in 1942.

Dorge, Elias G. E., 1863-1915

Business address: 112 Broadway/56 Kaufman Block (1912); 612 Front Street (1913-1915)

Business years: 1911-1915

Elias G. Dorge was born in Stavanger, Norway on February 6, 1863 and immigrated to America in 1881. He lived in Brooklyn, New York for two years before moving on to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he worked as a photographer for twenty-eight years. He was married to Dorthea Batne who had come from Stavanger in 1885. Dorge came to Fargo in 1911 first as a partner in Dorge & Jansrud photography, located at 112 Broadway and 56 Kaufman Block. In 1913 Dorge is listed as being on his own at 612 Front Street. Dorge died suddenly of heart failure on May 3, 1915. His wife died in February 1920 in Minneapolis.

Drysdale, James S.

Business address: 75 Edwards Block
Business years: 1905-1907

James S. Drysdale was born in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada in 1862. He came to America and settled in Minneapolis in about 1890. James married Amanda Michelson in 1892, and with her raised two children, Myrtle and Myra. Prior to coming to Fargo in 1905, James worked as a traveling salesman for O. H. Peck Company. James Drysdale took over the photography business from John J. Freeman who had died two years earlier. Drysdale also taught photography at the Northern School of Photography. He left Fargo in about 1907. No more information is known about James S. Drysdale.

Duffy, George E.

Business address: 118 Broadway
Business years: 1916

George E. Duffy was first listed in the Fargo city directories as a plumber in 1913. In 1916 he had a photography business at 118 Broadway. He disappeared from Fargo after that.

Electric Studio See Charles E. Reed

Ellingson & Laurens

Business address: Unknown
Business years: Late 1880s

The only information for this photography studio is a cabinet card photograph held in private hands of an unknown family. The studio imprint at the bottom of the image reads "Ellingson & Laurens, Fargo, Dakota." Mr. Ellingson's name does not appear in any Fargo city directory or North Dakota business gazetteer, thus no additional information is known about him, even his first name. Presumably the firm was in business for only a short time, likely between 1887 and 1889, prior to North Dakota statehood. See also entry for A. Laurens who apparently also operated his own studio in Fargo.

Erickson, Soren O., 1875 - ca. 1915

Business address: 305 NP Avenue
Business years: 1904-1915

Soren O. Erickson was born on May 9, 1875 in Norway. In 1884 he came with his parents to Eureka, Kansas where he was educated in the photography profession in 1897. He lived in Little Falls, Minnesota and Ashland, Wisconsin before settling in Fargo in 1901. During his first few years in Fargo, he worked as an employee of photographer T.M. Swem. In about 1904, Mr. Erickson opened his own studio at 305 NP Avenue. An ad in the July 19, 1907 Fargo Forum & Daily Republican stated that Mr. Erickson worked under the motto "My work never disappoints." Soren Erickson was married to Petrina J. Sundstad in 1907. Petrina was born on February 2, 1872 in Leirfjord, Norway. She came with her parents to Perley, Minnesota in 1882. In the 1890s she moved to Fargo and worked as a dressmaker up until the time of her marriage. Soren and Petrina had two daughters, Solveig, and ----- . It is assumed that Soren Erickson died in 1915, since his name disappears from the city directory at this time. The 1916 business gazetteer shows Petrina as operating the business. After 1916, the Erickson's studio is no longer listed. Petrina Erickson died on July 17, 1955 in Fargo. It appears that Mr. Erickson also operated a studio in Barnesville, as a stamp on a photograph in the Institute for Regional Studies collection reads "Erickson Studio Fargo & Barnesville" (51.111.14).

Essery, Joseph

Business address: 1st Avenue Between Broadway and Roberts Street (1882-1883); 618 First Avenue (1884)
Business years: 1882-1884

According to the 1882 and 1883 city directories, Joseph Essery first operated a studio on 1st Avenue between Broadway and Roberts Street in Fargo. In 1884 he had moved further down 1st Avenue to 618. He also lived at the same locations. No additional information has been found regarding Mr. Essery, and he was not listed in the 1885 census.

Fargo Film Finishing Company

Business address: 609 2nd Ave. North (1927-1938); 20 1/2 Broadway (1940)
Business years: 1927-1940

The Fargo Film Finishing Company's advertising slogan was "Demand our trade-marked prints from your druggist." The company was founded in 1926 with partners, Owen M. Hostler and H. W. Headen. Mr. Hostler had move that year to Fargo from Jamestown, N.D. where he had been a salesman for retail drugs. In the 1928 city directory Headen is replaced by T. Lawton MacDonald, and by 1930 only Hostler's name is given, as manager. The 1929 Fargo telephone directory gives the business address as 608 Front Street. In 1940, after fire destroyed the business, he moved to Watford City, N.D. and established Owen's Studio. He continued in business until 1969 when he was forced to retire due to ill health. Owen M. Hostler came to Fargo in 1926 from Jamestown, North Dakota. He was born January 22, 1894 at Ida Grove, Iowa and moved with his parents as a boy to Jamestown. At Jamestown, Mr. Hostler also played with a theater group and professional dance orchestra. He married Ellen M. Peterson, and they had a daughter Elaine and a son. In 1938 he married Cathryn Yoerg of McKenzie County, N.D., and they raised two daughters, Diane, and Amy. Mr. Hostler died at Watford City, N.D. on April 4, 1974.

Ferguson, Ed See R-F Aero Photo

Flaten, Gilbert E., 1856-1896

Business address: 506 Front Street (late 1880s); 722 Front Street (1890-1893); 67 Broadway (1895-1896)
Business years: late 1880s-1896

Gilbert E. Flaten was born in Vang in Valdres, Norway on August 21, 1856. He came to the United States in 1882 and settled in Fargo shortly thereafter. He first worked with his brother O.E. Flaten in a studio located in Moorhead, Minnesota in 1884. Mr. Flaten was married to Emma Voxland on August 4, 1891, and they had two children. Sometime in the late 1880s, Flaten opened his own studio at 506 Front Street, which for a time was advertised as Flaten Brothers. In May 1890 he took over the Haynes studio at 722 Front Street and in 1895 moved the studio to 67 Broadway. Mr. Flaten appeared to have been very active in the community. He was a member of the Key city Hook & Ladder, the A..O.U.W., the Macabees, and the Foresters. Mr. Flaten died in Fargo of typhoid pneumonia on February 25, 1896.

Follett Studios

Business address: 910 7th Avenue North
Business years: 1953

Margaret M. Lehr was born on March 16, 1915 in Fargo. She grew up in Fargo and graduated from Central High. She owned and operated Follett Studio's in the 1950s. In 1956 she moved to Moorhead where she died on July 8, 1989.

Forum Publishing Company

Business address: 101 5th Street North
Business years: 1891- [present]

It is not known when the Fargo Forum first used its own reporters to take photographs for news stories, but in 1929 they did own an old Graflex focal plane camera that was dusty and out of order, indicating its lack of use. Long-time Forum reporter Roy P. Johnson took his first photographs for the newspaper in about 1932. Until 1935 commercial photographers had supplied indoor photographs published in the newspaper. That changed when reporter Roy P. Johnson first used flash photography in the Cass County Courthouse. By 1938 the newspaper moved into photography in earnest when it purchased the necessary photography equipment and trained reporters and staff in its use. That same year the Forum acquired the Dakota Photo Engraving Company that supplied engravings for the newspaper. Early reporters were responsible for their own photography and the negatives were developed and printed by Fargo and Moorhead commercial studios. This arrangement did not prove to be satisfactory and they built their own darkroom. By 1952 there was a separate photography department operated by Forum staff.

Many reporters who took their own photographs and full-time photographers have been associated with the Forum over the years. The following incomplete list of Forum staff includes those known to have done photography for the newspaper. It also includes years of employment, when known: Kenneth W. Bergan (1951), Bill Bitters (1953), Nick Carlson, Bruce Crummy, Ed Dams (1957-), Eugene Fitzgerald, Chet Gebert, Gifford Herron (1934-1968), Colburn Hvidston III, Harry Jennings (1958-1976), Roy P. Johnson (1927-1963), Phil Mathews (1952-), Alf T. Olsen, Cal Olson, David Wallis, and Edward Yocum.

Foseide, John

Business address: Unknown
Business years: 1886 (as Wigness & Foseide)

Little is known of John Foseide. He was found in the 1886 business gazetteer working as a partner with John T. Wigness in Wigness & Foseide.

Freeman, John J.

Business address: 75 Edwards Block
Business years: 1904-1905

Little is known of John J. Freeman. He is listed in the 1904 city directory as having a studio in the Edwards Block. The following year his wife operated the studio. According to the city directories, the Freemans were living in Grand Forks. Mr. Freeman died around 1905, and the studio was taken over by James S. Drysdale.

Genelli Studio See Walter H. Schramm

Glesta, John "Jack," 1891-

Business address: 613 1st Avenue North
Business years: 1919-1920 (with C.E. Reed)

Mr. Glesta was born in October of 1891 in North Dakota. According to the 1900 census, his family lived in Valley City. He worked with Charles E. Reed in 1919-1920 and lived at 571 3rd Street in Fargo.

Goodfellow, Laura, 1881-

Business address: Unknown
Business years: 1910

Laura Goodfellow was born in about 1881 in Canada. The 1910 census states that she was a self-employed photographer with her own studio. She was a roomer at 515 7th Street South in Fargo. Nothing else is known of her.

Greene, H. S.

Business address: Unknown
Business years: 1894

Little is known of H.S. Greene. He is listed as a Fargo photographer in 1894. His photographic work was displayed in the June 7, 1894 fire anniversary edition of The Argus newspaper. It is believed that he moved to Billings, Montana but did not remain there long.

Grosz, Richard T., 1906-1972

Business address: 1009 So. 4th Street (1934-1936); 16-22 Broadway (Herbst Dept. Store, 1936-1937)
Business years: 1934-1937

Richard T. Grosz was born in New Leipzig, North Dakota on March 22, 1906. He came to Fargo in 1926 with the intention of joining the U.S. Navy, but instead he became interested in photography. On May 1, 1927 he married Hazel Hammer of Fertile, Minnesota. They had six children. During his first few years in Fargo, he worked on an ice crew until his business was able to support itself. His first studio was located in the basement of his home at 1009 South 4th Street in Fargo. In 1936 he moved his studio to the basement of the Herbst Department Store. In 1937 he moved his business over to Moorhead, Minnesota where he bought the Flaten-Oloye Studio at 405 Center Avenue. He once again moved his studio to 610 Center Avenue in 1942. It remained at this site until it was destroyed by fire on October 30, 1967. Many irreplaceable negative files were lost in this fire, including many historic glass negatives belonging to O.E. Flaten. A new studio was constructed at 202 8th Street South. In 1967, Richard's son David became a partner with his father, and he took over the business in 1970. Richard Grosz died on June 28, 1972.

Hagen, Oscar A., ca. 1894 - ca. 1931

Business address: 303 Broadway (1915-1916)
Business years: 1915-1916 (as Hagen & Slaten)

Oscar A. Hagen was born in about 1894 in Wisconsin. Little is known of Mr. Hagen. The city directories first show him as a lunch room worker in 1909. Then in 1910, he is listed as the proprietor of the Last Chance Restaurant. He was married to Gertie, and they had a child named Margaret. He is listed in 1915 and 1916 as a photographer. In 1916 he is listed with an Albert Slaten as a partner. Thereafter he is associated with restaurant work. In 1932 Gertie is listed as a widow, so apparently Oscar died sometime around this time.

Hamre, Nels P., 1877-1940

Business address: Unknown
Business years: 1909-1910

Nels P. Hamre was born on October 2, 1877 in Selje, Nordfjording, Norway. In 1880 he came to America with his parents at the age of 2 1/2 years old, and they settled near Benson, Minnesota. When he was in his teens he lost his lower leg in a binder accident. While in the hospital recuperating, he met a young woman named (Anna) Ellen Johnson. They were married on May 22, 1907, and together they had one daughter named Vivian. Nels apprenticed under a photographer in Benson, and then around 1909 moved to Fargo and set up a partnership with another photographer. In 1910, he bought a studio in Aneta, North Dakota from David Anderson. His business was rather slow until a train ran into a flock of sheep south of Aneta. Nels went and took pictures of the scene and sold them for $2.00 a dozen. This incident seemed to establish him as a competent photographer. Many of Mr. Hamre's photos can be seen in the Norwegian Farmers in U.S. Nels Hamre died February 3, 1940 in Aneta.

Hansen, Hans T., 1865-1941

Business years: 1891-1930; 1893 (as Logan & Hanson), 1896-1897 (as Hanson & Stene), 1899-1900 (as Hanson & Reis), 1909 (as Hansen & Rudd)

Hans T. Hansen was born on September 16, 1865 on a farm near Albert Lea, Minnesota. Early on in his career, Hans built himself a traveling studio and hired a livery team to move it from town to town. His travels took him up to Ada, Minnesota where he met Inger Sarina (Torvestaad) Nelson who was working for distant relatives of his on a farm near the Red River. Inger was born in Norway in 1870 and had come to Minnesota in 1887. Hans and Inger were married on June 25, 1890. After their marriage Hans continued to be a traveling photographer until their first child Harry was born in Hope, N.D. The family then settled in Fargo in 1891 where Hans and Inger raised five children: Harry, Lillian, Clarence, Lester, and Edward. Hans's first photograph studio was located at the corner of Second Avenue North and Broadway. The June 1893 fire consumed his own business, yet a photograph of the aftermath of the fire has Logan & Hanson embossed upon it. The 1893 directory states he is an "operator" at the studio of James R. Logan. At the time of the fire he was also assistant chief of the Continental Hose Company and fought the great Fargo blaze. After the fire the family toured North Dakota in a photography car, similar to a cook car, outfitted with a skylight and all equipment to finish pictures. They returned that same fall in 1893 and established a new photography business, but he apparently continued to operate a traveling studio for he opened a photo car at Cooperstown, N.D. in September 1894. For many years he used the name Hanson, but later changed his last name to Hansen because there were so many Hanson's. He appears again in the 1895-1896 Fargo city directory as having his own studio at 508 Front Street with Theodor Larssen, but by 1896 he is in partnership with Robert M. Stene as Hanson & Stene. In 1898 he relocated his business to 205 N.P. Avenue and was in partnership with Carl J. Reis as Hansen & Reis. Mr. Reis left the partnership shortly after 1900, and Hans continued on his own at this location until 1905 when he moved to 230 Broadway. Hans then went into partnership with Harold M. Rudd, and the 1909 city directory lists the firm as Hansen & Rudd. By 1910 Rudd was no longer in partnership and Hans had moved to 409 N.P. Avenue, where the studio went under the names "Hansen's Photograph Gallery" and "The New Studio." The family lived on the second story at the same address. By 1915 he moved his business to 318 1/2 Broadway and by 1919 he was working for photographer Elwin B. McCracken. Around 1930 Hansen again operated his own studio at 64 1/2 Broadway for a short time, and by 1932 he apparently retired. Due to poor health he and his family, except son Lester, moved to California in 1932 where Hans and Inger settled in Santa Monica. He died on August 4, 1941 in Los Angeles, and Inger died on January 20, 1956.

Skrivseth, Jacob L., 1853-

Business address: Unknown
Business years: 1878-1879

Jacob L. Skrivseth was a Fargo photographer for a short time between 1878 to 1879. Skrivseth may have been the first photographer in Fargo, but his studio location is unknown. Jacob L. Skrivseth was born on December 26, 1853 in Nördmore, Norway. He came with his family to America in 1869. They first settled in Freeborn County, MN. Jacob Skrivseth was educated in Norway and Minnesota. He learned the photography trade in Albert Lea, MN. From there he moved to Fairbault, MN, then to Fargo around 1878 or 1879. In the fall of 1879, Skrivseth became a partner of O. E. Flaten in Moorhead, MN. The two men apparently built a traveling wagon with a built-in dark room. Flaten stayed in Moorhead and Skrivseth traveled throughout the Red River Valley shooting town and farm scenes. Flaten and Skrivseth also may have been the official photographers for the St. Paul, Minneapolis, and Manitoba Railways, according to an article in the February 1881 Moorhead Weekly Argonaut, but this could not be confirmed by the James J. Hill Library, in St. Paul. Mr. Skrivseth was married to Bertha Christenson on June 10, 1880 in Fargo, and they had three children named Henning, Margaret, and Jay. In 1881 he dissolved his partnership with Flaten and moved to Buxton, North Dakota. He then moved to Hillsboro, ND in 1882 where he opened a studio. While in Hillsboro he rose to prominence and served as the community's mayor. Around 1898 he opened a studio in Mayville, ND and then one in Crookston, MN. By 1905 he had moved to Minot, ND and erected the Skrivseth Block. He went to Seattle during the year of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition and worked there as a photographer. After the Exposition he returned to Minot and continued his business. In 1925 he moved to Williston with his wife and son Jay. He died on February 23, 1934 in Williston, ND.
