Prospective Employee                     Department Head or Designee

This contract letter represents our complete agreement and replaces all prior written or oral agreements for assistantships. If there is any term or provision that you feel should be a part of this contract, you need to have this contract revised so that it is included or it will not be part of your contract (please discuss its inclusion with your supervisor before signing and returning this letter as its addition must be agreed to by the University). The reason for this is to avoid any misunderstanding in the future about what was promised and accepted between us.

Rights and Privileges of Graduate Assistants

Graduate assistants have certain rights and privileges specific to the assistantship experience:

* The right to be notified in writing of all decisions that affect their status as a graduate assistant. This includes advance notification of evaluation procedures and a summary of their performance evaluation.
* The right to be notified of any complaints received by a supervisor or department chair concerning their performance of duties.
* The right to respond in writing to such complaints.
* The right, depending on the availability of departmental and university resources, to be supported in pursuing additional activities that pertain to their professional development.
* The right to balance their assistantship responsibilities with their responsibilities to their academic program so that they can complete their degree in a timely manner.
* The privilege of being treated as a professional in their chosen field of study.

Termination

Graduate assistants may have their assistantship terminated by the Dean of the College of Graduate and Interdisciplinary Studies, upon recommendation by their supervisor, with documentation of probable cause. Early termination for cause may occur when:

* A student does not abide by the appointment conditions.
* A student fails to perform tasks as assigned.
* A student does not make adequate degree progress.
* A student is placed on Academic Probation.
* A student does not make satisfactory research progress.
* A student fails to maintain minimum registration.
* A student persistently refuses to follow reasonable advice and counsel of faculty in carrying out assistantship obligations.
* A student fails to comply with responsibilities as an employee set forth in the Graduate Bulletin, department rules and regulations governing assistantships, or the terms of sponsored research agreements that fund the assistantship.
* A student’s personal conduct is seriously prejudicial to the university, including violation of the NDSU Code of Student Behavior, state or federal law, and general university regulations.

From the Graduate Bulletin Graduate Assistantship policy:

I have read and understand the Graduate Assistantship Policy information above.
