

A graduate student is eligible to apply for a time extension to complete preliminary examination, defense, and/or the disquisition format review process upon a showing that they are:

1. In good academic standing and making progress toward degree completion, and
2. Undergoing childbirth, caring for their newborn, caring for their child with a serious medical condition, adopting a child, accepting foster placement of a child, experiencing their own serious medical condition, or experiencing a serious medical condition of a spouse/partner or parent for which they have caretaker responsibilities (medical certification may be required).

Student Last ID
First
 Graduate Program Degree
 Reason for Extension

Are you also requesting a leave of absence? Yes No
 Begin Leave Year Return from Leave Year

 Student

 Advisor

 Department Chair/Program Coordinator

 Dean, College of Graduate and Interdisciplinary Studies