4-H's pledge to think clearly, act loyally, serve graciously and contribute positively to communities is just what the world needs more of today. With changing family structures and dynamics, supporting students in learning skills to build strong families and children will hopefully make better futures for all. Verle and Sandra are happy to support students who embody the 4-H values in their pursuit of higher education at North Dakota State University.

The Roger G. and Nancy Gress Family Scholarship was established out of a simple love for NDSU and a need to give back to help others. Both Roger and Nancy have earned undergraduate and graduate degrees from NDSU. Altogether, the Gress' have nine NDSU degrees. In addition, both daughters-in-law and son-in-law have graduated from NDSU. The Gress family agrees- when asked what the good life means: "A healthy family enriched by God, a happy marriage and lots of grandchildren."
