Dear Student Affairs and Institutional Equity Staff Members,

As we begin the fall semester, I want to remind you all of the SAIE shared mission, commitment and value statements that were co-created us back in 2019 and recently updated. These statements serve as our foundation and remind us of how we show up for our students, colleagues and ourselves each day.

I see you living out our values every single day in the way that you

- collaborate with one another and express gratitude,
- create community for our students so that all can feel safe, valued and supported,
- strive for growth by adapting and continuing to improve,
- demonstrate integrity by following through, accepting responsibility and being transparent, and
- serve others with compassion and accountability.

Thank you for your commitment to our important work. We will continue our Good Things gratitude project this year. Please take a few minutes to recognize a co-worker (either within SAIE or outside) for demonstrating our values, for brightening your day, or for making you laugh. It only takes a minute to complete the form.
