Hi everyone,

Thanks again for attending the SAIE All Staff meetings last Wednesday 10/29. It was great to see everyone and it was time well spent talking about our Mission, Commitment, and Values!
I hope you enjoyed spending time with Student Affairs colleagues too.

Below is a link to a shared drive to see the 'pre-show' with pictures and successes from departments this past year, the agenda, and the values handout. Please take a moment to review and celebrate our many accomplishments this past year.

We are still working on coding the data from the gallery walks and will send a message out with a summary of the themes when we've completed that task.

Finally, we generated an AI poem that was co-created based on our reflections. While the poem is not likely to win a Pulitzer Prize, I hope it inspires you to lean into our values this year and embrace the adventure of our work together.
The poem is included in the link above.

Our Good Things recognition continues with several mentions on great work being done at NDSU both within Student Affairs and in other areas:

- Laura Thibert is new to Center for Accessibility and Disability Resources. She was recognized by Molly McKinnon.
- Neely Benton in the Grad School was recognized by Angela Reinke.
- Dilvin Habib, Kaelen Napoleon, and Vanessa Rabitaille-Kinney in the Center for Community and Belonging were recognized by Nicole Pearson.

You are welcome to recognize a co-worker (either within SAIE or outside) for demonstrating our mission, commitment and values. Here a link to the form.
