NDSU

CONTINUED LEARNING

WELCOME

FROM THE DIRECTOR

This year I saw a whirlwind of activity in our office, we changed our name to Continued Learning, we refreshed our brand, and we launched a new website. Take a moment to view our new website for professional development courses as well as activities for your students.

We have also developed our first ever...

Teaching, Leadership, and Learning Conference

June 16 | 9 a.m. - 2 p.m. | Online

Register today at <https://bit.ly/4aRbQht>

Join us and a variety of education professionals who will share inclusive education strategies they've found essential to their teaching. There will be a keynote, plenty of breakout sessions to learn from, and an option to earn credit or CEUs for attending the conference.

On the following pages, review a list of summer professional development courses, but also check our website for courses added throughout the summer. View our full course list at https://bit.ly/K12_PD_Classes or get courses and events delivered straight to your inbox—subscribe at https://bit.ly/K12PD_Subscribe.

Make the most of these learning opportunities this summer so you can return refreshed, renewed, and stocked up with new strategies for the new year.

Sincerely,

Dr. Stacy Duffield, Director
