

View this email in your browser

Wednesday, March 12, 2025

NDSU President Cook testifies to North Dakota House Appropriations Education and Environment Division

President Cook outlined how NDSU's priorities respond to workforce demands, provide flexibilities to students and improve student success.

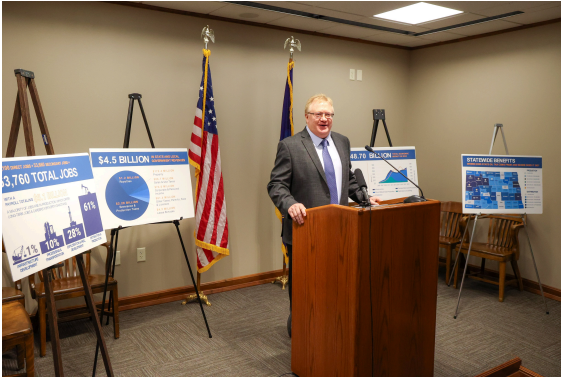

NDSU-North Dakota Forest Service responds to statewide fire emergency

The Forest Service is coordinating with state and local agencies to ensure rapid deployment of firefighting resources.

Learn more

NDSU researcher highlights economic impact of oil and gas industry in North Dakota

NDSU's Dean Bangsund joined Gov. Kelly Armstrong and North Dakota Petroleum Council President Ron Ness at the State Capitol in Bismarck to discuss key findings from a recent study that showed $48.8 billion in gross business volume and over 63,000 jobs in 2023.

Learn more

NDSU engineering professor earns NSF CAREER Award

Professor Umamaheswara Rao Tida is working to create more efficient, reliable and compact computer designs while addressing crucial issues that impact performance, manufacturability and integration.

Learn more

800 Cafe gives students real world experience

The on-campus restaurant, which is open to the public, is managed by nutrition science and dietetic students as part of their program. Meals are planned to be as close as possible to 800 calories as the name suggests.

Learn more

Professor Emeritus, former NDSU choir students to perform at Carnegie Hall

The concert on Saturday, March 15 features more than 70 NDSU choir alumni who will sing Randall Thompson's "Frostiana: Seven Country Songs" with the Wagner College Choir from Staten Island, New York.

Learn more

Tell us what you would like to learn more about at ndsuniiversity.relations@ndsuni.edu.

Our mailing address is:

North Dakota State University PO Box 6050 University Relations Fargo, ND 58108-6050

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe